1. Purpose

1.1. The Awards program recognizes and rewards outstanding contributions, achievements, and dedication by individuals or groups within the Saitsa community. This Awards Policy outlines the procedures and criteria for the administration and management of awards provided by Saitsa.

2. Definitions

Advocacy

The act of supporting, recommending and/or arguing in favour of something such as a cause, idea or policy.

Award

A generic term, that describes a monetary value that may be presented to a person or club based upon specific criteria.

Awards Selection Committee (ASC)

This committee is responsible for selecting award recipients based on the merit of the applicant and their relevance to specific application criteria.

Community Spirit

A student’s experience at SAIT should be about more than just academic performance; Saitsa strives to enhance the student experience by providing services, programs and opportunities for networking and personal development. Community spirit involves an individual’s desire to make their own, and others’, experiences at SAIT even more memorable, meaningful, and enjoyable.

Good Standing

A student who has not been placed on academic or non-academic probation, has not academically withdrawn, and who has complied with all of his/her specific obligations as defined by SAIT.

Leadership

While hard to define, effective leaders tend to lead by example and demonstrate exemplary qualities of integrity, honesty, creativity, dedication and humility while attempting to achieve an established goal and/or vision through the work of a team and/or committee.

Philanthropy

The practice of volunteering your time, talent, funds and/or energy to a cause.

SAIT Community

The larger SAIT Community includes students, volunteers, instructors and staff who work full or part-time for SAIT or Saitsa. While Saitsa staff and members (students) are a part of the overall SAIT community, in the context of the Marcel Carpenter award, SAIT Community strictly refers to those who are directly employed by SAIT.

Saitsa Community

The Saitsa Community is encompassing of all Saitsa members, staff and supporters. To be a member of the Saitsa Community simply means that one supports Saitsa in its efforts to develop a community where students are inspired to learn, lead and be exceptional.

Saitsa Member

A student currently registered at SAIT who has paid their Saitsa fees in full, as described in the “Tuition and Fees” section of the SAIT Academic Calendar.

3. Confidentiality

- 3.1. All nomination materials and discussions within the Awards Committee are confidential.
